Waterbury here to-day.

The Memorial day game with New Haven will be called at 10:30 a. m.

As we thought, it was Joe O'Rourke and not Jimmy that was sold to the Lynn Club of the New-England league. Joe has refused to report, as he wants to go up the ladder and not down.

The Giants like all the rest of the National League teams, at last took revenge on Covaleski, taking a six inning game from the Philadelphia 3-0. "Covle" has been knocked out of the mound more times than any other pitcher this year.

Sweet revenge for Carson Hodge yesterday against Holyoke. The blonde twirler after having been released from the Paperweights signed up with New Britain and yesterday trimmed his former team mates 6-2, allowing them only four hits. It must have been bitter gall for Fred Winkler.

Sandy Bannister, the pitcher, who jumped the Waterbury club has been fined $100 and suspended, and will have to make peace with the national powers before he can play in organized baseball again. Manager Gansel of Rochester from which club he was purchased by the Authors, says Sandy must report to Waterbury or stay outside of organized baseball.

The Chicago White Sox and the Detroit Tigers began their series yesterday in Detroit, the latter winning 2-1 after battling for 14 innings. Both Detroit's runs resulted on hits made by Shortstop O'Leary, who made four hits out of six times at bat. Pat Dougherty, the former Orator, led for the Chicago with three hits out of five times at the bat. Fifteen Chicago runners were left on base.

Danny Murphy, formerly with Norwich, with his trusty stick put Philadelphians on top of Washington yesterday with three hits out of four trips.

If weather permits we will at last have a chance to see the Holyoke team perform, especially Frank Beaumont Wednesday will mark their third attempt at playing here this season.

New Haven and Springfield broke even at Savin Rock yesterday, the second game going for six innings and being called at 6:45 when darkness put a stop to the play. It took three hours, flat, to finish the first contest.

This season is certainly one for records in the Connecticut league, and the Orators figure very prominently. To the locals go four records as follows: Sixteen bases on balls given by Pitcher Pollard and Powell to Holyoke; first shut out of the season against New Britain; and first errorless game by a pitcher in a nine inning game, allowing Hartford only one hit, and shutting them out. Other records are seventeen errors contributed by New Britain in a nine inning game on Monday, and three hours to complete a nine inning contest between Springfield and New Haven.

Hilt and Bannon have been hitting the hardest on the local team in the last two weeks. Hilt has batted at the rate of .370 and Bannon for .363 in the last eight games.

It is stated that Hughie Jennings, manager for Detroit, is sore because he left Ira Thomas, the old Hartford backstop, go to Philadelphia. Ira like the majority of the Connecticut leaguers, with the majors has been stinging the ball at a lively clip.

George Tacey, with the Orators in 1906, and who this year was given a try out by Springfield has been turned adrift. George may catch on with the Patriots as Manager Hanna has not a full quota of twirlers.

Andy Coakley, turned over to the Cincinnati club by the Chicago Cubs has signed to pitch with the Newburg club of the outlaw Eastern Baseball association of which Hugh MacKinnon of this city is one of the managers having charge of the Kingston franchise.

Four home games next week. New Haven, Monday morning; New Britain, Tuesday; Holyoke, Wednesday, and Waterbury, Friday. The games abroad include New Haven, Monday afternoon, Hartford on Thursday and in Waterbury on Saturday.

New Haven with the team that has been trimming them all up around the circuit, will be the attraction at Newfield Park on Monday, the game to be played in the morning, and called at 10:30. In the afternoon there will be a double header between teams in the Industrial league.

At East End Freight Yard.
Brookside Specials vs. East Sides, at 9:30.

The Newfields will have as their booking for to-morrow at the Meadows the Xavier Deaf Mutes of New York city, game to be called at 2:30. It is quite a novelty to see these deaf mutes play, and is worth going to see. The team is composed entirely of deaf and dumb players, who go into the game for all they are worth, endeavoring to trim their more active brothers. As this team has a good record, an exciting game ought to be the result. Batteries for the Mutes: Quinn and Hamilton; for the Newfields, White, Miller and Hoeschele.

The game that will practically decide the leadership in the Park City League for a while at least will be played at the Flats to-morrow when the leaders, the St. Charles and the West End Boys' Club will meet. The East Side boys have won seven games and have yet to lose one, while the West Enders are just behind them with one defeat and six victories. A big crowd of admirers of both teams will turn out.

also tend to lessen unnecessary disturbances during the parade.

The crowds ought to turn out at the Crane Valve Co. No. 2 game. These two teams were bitter rivals for supremacy last year, each playing two games with the other, and each being victorious in extra inning games. The strengthening process has worked wonders among both clubs, a good game resulting.

HARVARD MAKES BEST SHOWING IN TRACK EVENTS

(Special from United Press.)
Boston, May 29.—Fair weather and a fast track after the heavy rains should make the A. C. A. annual meet today in the Harvard stadium a memorable one. Indications based on the preliminary heats which were run off in all of the events yesterday with the exception of the mile and two mile seem to point to Harvard as the probable victor in today's athletic contest.

Harvard showed unexpected strength in the field events yesterday, her weakest spot. In the weights Harvard showed up well with Little. Harvard has three men in the high jump who will make Canfield of Princeton as a second man. Everything looks favorable for the establishment of a new record in the mile when Jacques of Harvard meets Paul, the crack runner from Pennsylvania. Yale's hopes lie in the hurdles, which she hopes Howe will take from Gardner and Rand of Harvard.

With Harvard's unexpected strength in the field it now seems to be generally supposed that she will take the pennant; that Cornell will place second while the crack runner from Pennsylvania, Yale's hopes lie in the hurdles, which she hopes Howe will take from Gardner and Rand of Harvard.

MISS JULIA MIX BEATS MISS BISHOP

Wretched Driving Cost Brooklawn Woman Her First Three Holes and Thereafter She Was Never Dangerous to Her Opponent.

Miss Julia R. Mix, of Englewood, had her name inscribed on the tablet of fame by winning the championship tournament of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association, at Nassau, yesterday. Miss Mix, to the surprise of many, decisively won from Miss Georgianna Bishop, holder of the title for the two previous years. The fact that Miss Mix won by eight up and six to play is partly explained by the other woman's erratic long game, Miss Bishop finding it utterly impossible to get away her tee shots at the outset of the match.

Wretched driving really cost Miss Bishop the first three holes, and thereafter the Brooklawn woman never appeared dangerous, although she did manage to halve the fourth and fifth. By losing the sixth, however, Miss Bishop became four down. She then won her only hole of the match, the seventh, and when Miss Mix won the eighth and ninth in sixes Miss Bishop found herself five down at the turn the strokes reading 45 to 51 in favor of Miss Mix. On the homeward journey Miss Mix won by eight up and six to play is partly explained by the other woman's erratic long game, Miss Bishop finding it utterly impossible to get away her tee shots at the outset of the match.
